

Guy Fawkes' Photo Scavenger Hunt – Clues

This person survived Guy Fawkes' plot,
And escaped with his life on the 5th of November.
A holiday celebrates the fact that this leader survived,
It's a victory Great Britain will always remember.

These were lit all around London,
After Guy Fawkes' murder attempt failed.
Burning bright, these flames celebrated,
How this culprit was caught and jailed.

This substance is used to make guns fire,
A famous treason plot is named after it.
People still celebrate when the plot failed,
And many bonfires are lit.

These are shot off,
And light up the sky.
They are used for celebration,
Of when King James 1 didn't die.

These things go “KA-BOOM,”
And are made to destroy.
Once the fuse is lit,
It will harm every girl and boy.

This person was part of the Gunpowder Plot,
That was never a success,
If he would have made this happen,
It would have been a mess.

This is a type of firework,
You may hold it if you must.
It will shine bright for a while,
And then fade out into dust.

November 5, 1605,
Was set to be the opening day.
What was scheduled to open,
That Guy Fawkes tried to take away?

When a new session of parliament,
Is scheduled to begin,
The Yeoman of the Guard,
Must search this room deep within.

Lord Monteaale received one of these,
Ten days prior to Parliament’s opening.
Because of this they stopped,
A plot to kill the king.

Guy Fawkes grew one of these,
On his upper lip,
It's made up of hair,
If that gives you a tip.

This is the country,
Where Guy Fawkes once stayed,
Until he was caught in a plot,
Where this place he betrayed.

In "V for Vendetta"
The main character wore one of these,
To look like Guy Fawkes,
Can you guess this thing, please?

The gunpowder that Guy Fawkes hid,
Was stored in these things and topped with a lid.

Guy Fawkes' Photo Scavenger Hunt – Answers

This person survived Guy Fawkes' plot,
And escaped with his life on the 5th of November.
A holiday celebrates the fact that this leader survived,
It's a victory Great Britain will always remember.

ANSWER: King James 1

These were lit all around London,
After Guy Fawkes' murder attempt failed.
Burning bright, these flames celebrated,
How this culprit was caught and jailed.

ANSWER: Bonfires

This substance is used to make guns fire,
A famous treason plot is named after it.
People still celebrate when the plot failed,
And many bonfires are lit.

ANSWER: Gunpowder

These are shot off,
And light up the sky.
They are used for celebration,
Of when King James 1 didn't die.

ANSWER: Fireworks

These things go “KA-BOOM,”
And are made to destroy.
Once the fuse is lit,
It will harm every girl and boy.

ANSWER: Explosives

This person was part of the Gunpowder Plot,
That was never a success,
If he would have made this happen,
It would have been a mess.

ANSWER: Guy Fawkes

This is a type of firework,
You may hold it if you must.
It will shine bright for a while,
And then fade out into dust.

ANSWER: Sparkler

November 5, 1605,
Was set to be the opening day.
What was scheduled to open,
That Guy Fawkes tried to take away?

ANSWER: Parliament

When a new session of parliament,
Is scheduled to begin,
The Yeoman of the Guard,
Must search this room deep within.

ANSWER: Basement/Cellar

Lord Monteaule received one of these,
Ten days prior to Parliament's opening.
Because of this they stopped,
A plot to kill the king.

ANSWER: Letter

Guy Fawkes grew one of these,
On his upper lip,
It's made up of hair,
If that gives you a tip.

ANSWER: Mustache

This is the country,
Where Guy Fawkes once stayed,
Until he was caught in a plot,
Where this place he betrayed.

ANSWER: Great Britain

In "V for Vendetta"
The main character wore one of these,
To look like Guy Fawkes,
Can you guess this thing, please?

ANSWER: Mask

The gunpowder that Guy Fawkes hid,
Was stored in these things and topped with a lid.

ANSWER: Barrels