

Mall Scavenger Hunt

If you're hungry, this will put you in a good mood
Find a person who's handing out samples of food!

It is good exercise as long as no one cares
Have you're whole group go up, only using the stairs!

Here's a challenge that isn't really hard to handle
Look for someone walking in a pair of sandals!

It is sure to travel way faster than a snail
Find a car in the mall that is parked and for sale!

Some are tall and pointy, others wide, and some flat
Take a picture of someone trying on a hat!

If you're thirsty, then this will feel good on your lip
Someone with a drink must be taking a big sip!

When they cost less, you can buy clothing by the heap
Find a sale in a window for something quite cheap!

Though a mom may be happy with something she's buying
See if her baby is beside her and is crying!

An idea that is certain to cure any bore
Is to pretend to be a model in a store!

This may not be that easy to find for your crew
Find a poster of someone the same age as you!

Will they be back to normal in minutes or months?
Pretend to all be frozen like ice cubes at once!

Have someone in your group do their very own dance
But make sure that they do it beside a few plants!

It may not be that easy to find when it's hot
Find someone with a coat on right there on the spot!

All this searching can make you feel tired as dead
You'll be luckier when you run into a bed!
