

Ladies Night Out Photo Riddles

You may start out with one shirt, and a stranger with theirs
Find someone that will swap theirs to show you they care!

Make it happen on purpose, and not just a sneak
Have a married man kiss one of you on the cheek!

All your teammates can vary from big down to small
Find a woman you don't know over six feet tall!

You can throw letters in them, but leave out your socks
Send yourself a message to look for a mailbox!

Whether single or taken, this challenge is yours
Ask a guy for his number, but need not do more!

Being nice may allow you to do him no harm
Let a stranger you know write your name on his arm!

Everyone may be thirsty-here's something divine
Have somebody captured while they're sipping some wine!

They won't have to take you anywhere new to see
Just be caught sitting inside of any taxi!

Does not matter whose garments or what there is said
But have someone with underwear placed on his or her head!

If you're good around people this shouldn't be hard
Get somebody to hand you're their own business card!

Everything in this challenge will all go to plan
If three of your members can complete a handstand!

If you like animals, then this challenge is fitting
Pet a stranger's dog, careful not to be bitten!

Some people feel that all of their art is quite needy
So look through the town for a wall with graffiti!

There are some challenges that are harder to do
Get somebody to show you a hidden tattoo!
